RED and WHITE

Verse I

*Within your halls we find
New hopes and joys each day,
As those who came before us
Have paved the trodden way.
Now it's 50's turn to play
Her part in Eastern too,
Thus making all of us be proud
To share these joys with you.*

Chorus

*O Eastern we will ne'er forget
The days we spent with you,
The joys and sorrows we have known,
The tears and laughter too.
The times for work, the times for play,
The times for friendship true
Are always in our memories
With pleasant thoughts of you.*

Verse II

*Our colors red and white
Inspire us on our way,
To light the torch of learning
That leads us day by day,
To find success and honor,
And win new laurels true
For Eastern High, our guiding light,
In everything we do.*

Verse III

*We always will remember
These days at Eastern High
For the mem'ries we will cherish
As years are passing by—
The thoughts of old companions,
And friendships we found true
Will always linger in our hearts
As pleasant days we knew.*

Dedication

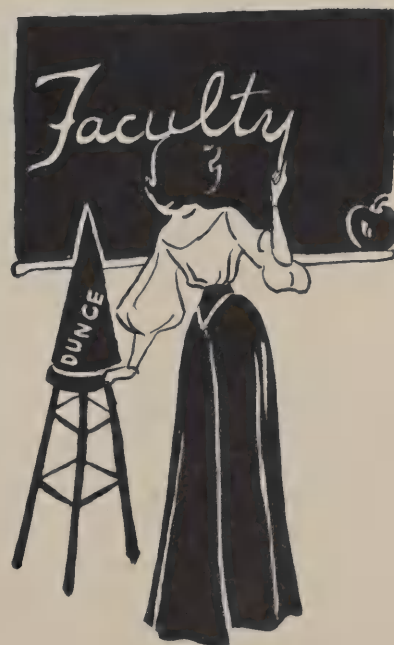

TO MISS ZOUCK:

Long a beloved figure in Eastern High School, you began your career as principal when we took our places as leaders. We wish for you a long, endearing principalship and the happiness we knew during our brief stay.

As those who came before us

DR. LAURA J. CAIRNES

You kindled the first embers of our torch to light our dark way. By every helpful word from you, by every bit of wisdom you imparted, by all the help you gave to us in many ways our path was made light. We can never repay you for the long hours you have labored for us; we can only thank you for your invaluable guidance and hope that, by seeking the light of knowledge all our lives, we may pay tribute to you, a cherished member of the class of 1950.

Eastern's Faculty, Past and Present, Honors Dr. Cairnes

The faculty gives a dinner for Dr. Cairnes

In this envelope, Dr. Cairnes finds the announcement of an award to be given in her name each year at commencement to some lucky Eastern graduate.

Our Principal

When you first read these lines, you will be near graduation, soon to be Eastern girls in the wide, wide world. If you by chance read them afterwards, it is my sincere wish that you will, then and always, be happy, wise, and prosperous.

A. Marguerite Zouck

Our Vice Principals

Your kindness and consideration will be long remembered here at Eastern.

In the years to come I shall be looking forward to the reunions when I shall hear of your successful accomplishments in your various endeavors.

Best wishes to all of you.

Anna C. Pinner

To the Class of 1950—

You, as the leaders of Eastern High School, have extended to me a most cordial welcome, and have helped me to feel that I really belong to this great old school.

My best wishes to each of you for the years ahead.

To be rather than to seem—To do rather than to dream

In Memoriam

"But the soul of her, the glowing, gorgeous,

joy upon some other dawn."

GREEN and GOLD

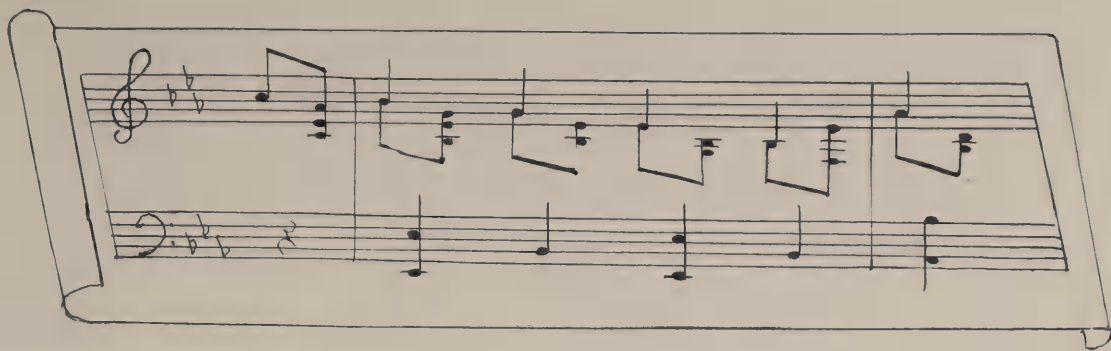

Klaschus

*In the ancient realms of Calvert
'Neath the fairest southern sky,
Lassies gay with joyful voices
Sing the praise of Eastern High.
Blithe are they and true and happy,
And their standards firm they hold;
Proud are they to be defenders
Of old Eastern's Green and Gold.*

*In the fore you'll always find them
In their studies or in play;
Placing all their foes behind them
In their sports they gain the day.
For with all true Eastern lassies
In their hearts this thought they hold:
"Bring new laurels unto Eastern,
Honor to the Green and Gold."*

*When these days have passed beyond us
And we leave dear Eastern High,
As we think of Alma Mater
Cherished thoughts will dim the eye.
Though apart we all may scatter,
Deep within our hearts we'll hold
Memories dear of old companions
And of Eastern's Green and Gold.*

Our Sophomore Year

On April 1, 1949, we sophomores witnessed the installation of our first class officers. We always will be grateful to them for successfully helping us through our first year at Eastern. Under their leadership we became a part of our school.

Our First Class Meeting

Wide-eyed and still rather dazed by our new environment, we sophomores dotted the bleachers and floors of the north gym. It was October 24, 1948—the day to formally meet our new advisers and get a glimpse into our future.

First, Student Council members were asked by Miss Miller to take a bow; then we were advised to keep well, eat well, and play well by Miss Tacka, Mrs. Pertsch, and Mrs. Thompson, respectively. Miss Cairnes expressed a hope that we would become the “nifty-thrifty Class of '50” and introduced our advisers—Mrs. Farley, Miss Plitt, Miss Hall, and Miss Mullan who set the goals for us to reach.

Our First Class Party

Our first party at Eastern was held after school on December 8, 1948 in the gym, gaily decorated in red and white. We got acquainted by means of name cards. Much talent was brought to our attention that day by the lovely vocal, piano, and accordion solos. We also enjoyed the delightful Spanish dance and the singing of Christmas carols. The feature attraction was the hilarious skit, “The Lighthouse Keeper’s Daughter.” Dancing to popular records ended the wonderful party which gave us a forecast of fun to come.

GAY SOPHOMORE DAY

Although the morning of Thursday, May 13, dawned rainy and cold, the Class of 1950 was in gay spirits. We were about to embark on our first big day at Eastern—Sophomore Day. Our one act play entitled "Saved" really put us in the "limelight", and the whole school agreed that the cast of six gave an amazing performance. After the curtain went down, we could tell by the applause that our play had been a tremendous success. This inspired us for the rest of the day, and the lunch periods which followed were gala affairs. Red balloons and streamers, contrasted with our white dresses, gave the cafeteria a festive appearance. The Class of '50 will not quickly forget its first big occasion at Eastern.

Our Junior Year

JUNIOR DAY

On June 7, 1949, we presented our Junior Play, "The Pot Boiler," to the school. For the first time, our banner was displayed and we sang our class song. Everyone was happy and proud of our new accomplishment. Junior Day was tucked away in our memories as another pleasant occasion at Eastern.

Our leaders in our Junior Year were:

Jean McLearn
Mary Jo Blakely
Mary T. Rogers
Anita Burkle

Stardust

"...there always will remain, That Stardust Melody."

When November the 20th rolled around, every girl seemed to be in seventh heaven, and why not? It was the night of our Junior Prom. There were stars for decorations and stars in our eyes as we danced to the music of Dick Depkin's orchestra.

Junior Senior Boatride

With big lunches and few books, we climbed out of our special buses and hurried to find a place on that coveted top deck.

Excitement ran high all day on June 3, 1949, as each of us waited for the dismissal bell to ring so that we could be on our way. The weather man provided a glorious day, and we provided the fun.

We Were Garland Bearers

We wove you rosy garlands

Because we hold you dear.

We raised them proudly o'er you

To show our love sincere.

And as you journey down life's way

May flowers be ever nigh.

But be there flowers or be there thorns,

Remember Eastern High.

'Twas good to have you with us

We wish that you could stay.

Our thoughts will follow after

When you are far away.

The time has come dear '49

For you to say good-bye.

But if you're far or if you're near,

Remember Eastern High.

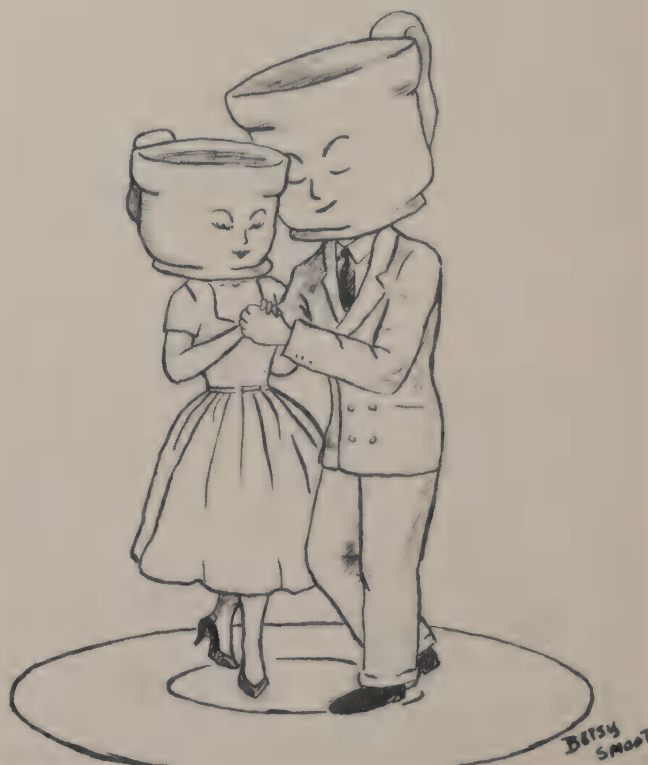

Hot chocolate, women, and song—

The old adage, "Too many cooks spoil the broth," didn't apply to us on December 15 as we served the traditional supper to the cast of '49's Senior Play. Plenty of fun and spaghetti was had by all.

We didn't go as far as wearing bells on our toes, but we certainly were proud of those rings on our fingers.

June brought out the campaign banners as we proceeded to elect our Senior Officers.

*Our Junior Tea Dance
May Madness — May 13, 1949*

Our Senior

With Anne Ziegenfuss as our captain, on October 6, 1949, we advanced from second to first string varsity. If past record is any indication of present ability, Anne will again guide us smoothly through our serious as well as our lighter experiences.

How proud we were to have Miss Zouck make her first official speech as principal on Senior Day. Her inspiring talk on "What is Eastern, Where is Eastern, and Who is Eastern" made us realize that we are and always will be Eastern High School.

Dr. Laura J. Cairnes' greeting was warmly received by us, and we hope that she will make many return visits while 1950 reigns as Eastern's "first ladies."

Year

Dressed all in white, with red carnations on our dresses, we witnessed the installation of the senior officers, which was the most outstanding event of the day. We were happy to have such prominent visitors as Dr. Laura J. Cairnes, Dr. William H. Lemmel, Dr. J. Carey Taylor and Dr. David E. Weglein present to help us celebrate this important occasion.

Senior Day is always a gala occasion,
and this one was no exception.
Teachers were lenient, cafeteria parties were bounteous, and good times were had by all.

Dickens' famous characters came to life in the hands of the well chosen cast, who made them seem as real today as they were one hundred years ago.

But the long hours of rehearsing were well worth the effort, for reward came in the form of a delicious supper attractively prepared and served by our junior sisters.

Christmas At

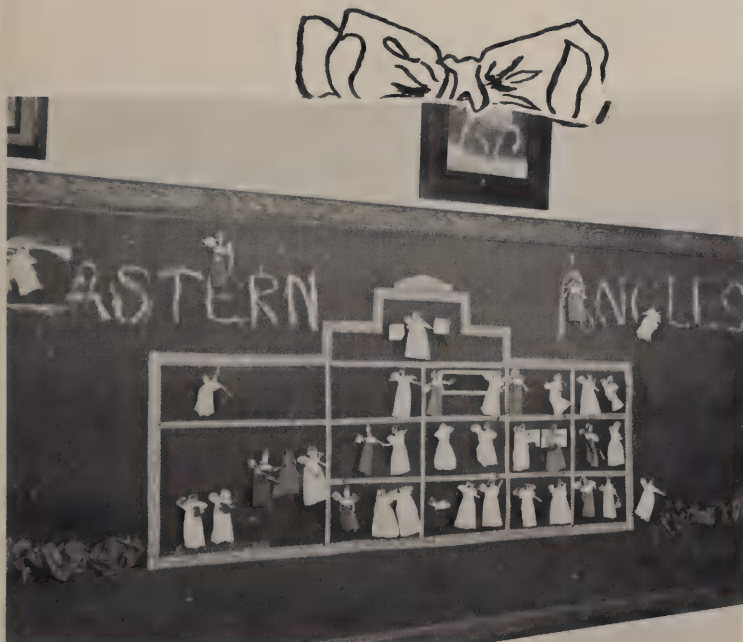

Singing carols and carrying glowing torches, we, as seniors, especially enjoyed our last Christmas Assembly at Eastern by taking part in the unforgettable candle-light procession.

Eastern

Throughout Eastern the Christmas spirit had taken hold. The Banner held a bulletin board contest and as a result the classrooms were changed into Christmas wonderlands. Ellen Dixon and Dolores Caplan played Santa Claus to many of the patients in the mental hospitals by sending jewelry donated by the girls in the school. Another of E.H.S.'s good-will campaigns was the drive for books, which, under the leadership of Edwina Colbourne, sent 80 books to the children of Newfoundland.

Farewell, Dm's!

The Dm farewell assembly—one of the proudest moments of our class history!

Bidding farewell to Eastern, Anne was, as usual, a poised and gracious presiding officer.

Dr. Anne Gary Pannell, Dean of Goucher, gave some timely advice on women's obligations in the world today and urged active participation in community affairs.

We were sad to see our Dm sisters leave us, but happy to remember them as part of 1950.

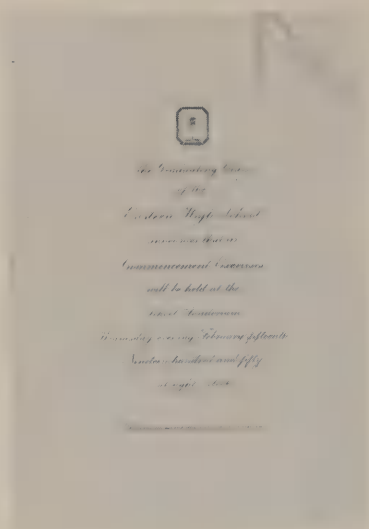

Garland Procession

*"Twas good to have you with us
We wish that you could stay"*

As we watched our Dm sisters walk under the garlands we saw our class forming another link in the golden chain of Eastern graduates.

Last spring a tea was held for the parents of Bm students in order to familiarize them with the school. After a tour through the building, the parents returned to the auditorium for an entertainment. Several gym classes presented various folk dances, after which Janice Westervelt of Bm1 did a toe dance. Mary Grauling sang a solo and Katherine Panagakos of Bm2 played a selection on the piano. Following this was a flute solo by Josephine Collins of Bm2, and the final number was sung by Cathe Leonard. The hardworking chairman who planned this entertainment was Barbara Shook. A few words of welcome from the principal and members of the faculty closed the program. Everyone was then invited to the north lobby where refreshments were served by the juniors, and the parents had a chance to become acquainted with members of the faculty.

DO YOU KNOW JOE?

*Biology is fun you know;
Especially when you cut up Joe!
Joe's an animal, called the frog,
Who used to play on any old log.
Joe doesn't play there any more,
Because he's entered Eastern's door.
He's now stretched out on some tin plate,
Because he tried to sneak in late.*

WE THE SOPHIES

*We just arrived at Eastern High,
And everything is new.
The upperclassmen never worry,
But little Sophies do.*

*We couldn't find our classes,
And where were we to go?
We'd never been in Eastern High,
We surely didn't know.*

*We walked along the hallways bright
Worried to death 'tis true.
If we don't have our lessons right
What are we going to do?*

*They tell us Eastern's awfully hard,
So how we work to pass.
The work that's given to us is done
By every eager lass.*

*If we don't get all E's, my gosh,
We surely will be mad!
When we get our report cards
It really makes us sad!*

*But even though we're Sophies now,
We're really not so blue;
'Cause next year we'll be "Juniors",
And we'll be up there too.*

*So now we wave our colors,
The white and blue to you.
We wish you luck where e'er you go
From the class of '52.*

CLASS OF '52

In February finally came through.

Were next to enter the stately door.
B1, B2, and B3

B4, B5, and B6
Their goals they now have firmly fixed.
B7, B8, and B9
In the cafeteria now do dine.
B10, B11, and B12
For knowledge they now dig and delve.
But in the end they all are true
To their class colors of white and blue.*

HOW TO BE A SENIOR

*Now that we've passed through Eastern's doors
Into the world so fine,
We'd like to offer some advice
To those who stay behind.*

*Remember, girls, that seniorhood's
A high exalted state.
A senior never comes on time
If she can get there late.*

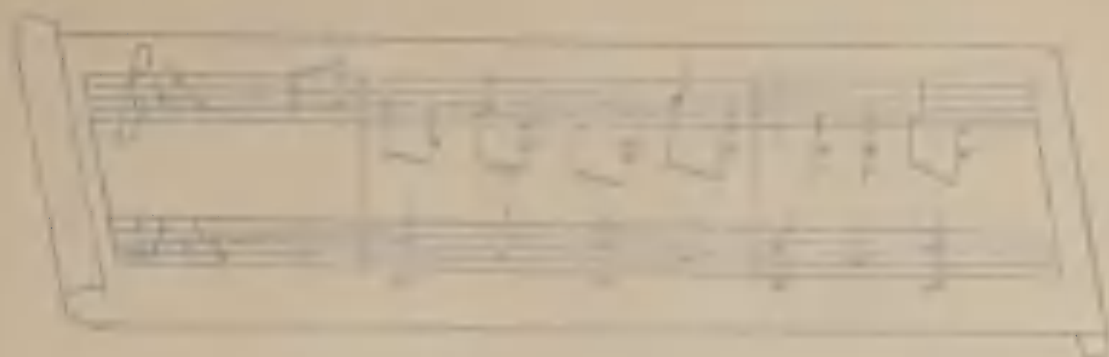

*Although her feet may walk the halls,
Her thoughts are far away.
She hasn't time for dreams at night;
She dreams in class all day.*

*Why should she do her homework dull
When it's such fun to guess?
She speaks to Juniors, not at all;
To Sophomores, even less.*

*In short, this Senior is a thing
Of marvelous disdain.
The underclassmen she ignores,
She thinks work is inane.*

*We hope she wasn't one of us,
And won't be one of you,
For she's a fine example of
The things you shouldn't do.*

HOW TO BE A SENIOR

To the Members of the Class of 1950:

On the occasion of your graduation, the Alumnae Association of Eastern High School extends to you congratulations and best wishes; congratulations on the successful completion of your school work, and best wishes for the future.

In the messages we have sent you previously, we have symbolized the doors of welcome that Eastern has held open every year to you. Now comes the realization that no longer will they welcome you as a student, no longer will they mean the renewal of classes and classmates, of work and play together. For some of you, at least, the closing of these doors means that new ones will open in other advanced schools. This group will pledge their allegiance to another Alma Mater, but for most of you, Eastern High will hold this place in your hearts and lives. If you, therefore, wish to keep the doors of Eastern High open to you, we believe there is no better way than membership in the Alumnae Association. Through it you can renew and perpetuate your class friendships, and through it also you can help those who come after you through the various activities of the Association. We need you to strengthen our ranks and share our work. We hope that you will come to depend on us for friendship and fellowship.

Your graduation marks the beginning of many new interests. We urge that among them you include membership in the
